Alma Mater Columbia International University

Columbia, Alma Mater, thy name we would adorn,
With filial devotion, of veneration born.
In land of golden jasmine, and fair magnolia white,
Thy tow'rs are pointing upward toward God and Heaven and Light.

Of rare and costly marble thy walls were never reared;
But sons and daughters faithful, to whom His grace
appeared,
Have ever been thy bulwarks, thy rare adornment too,
Columbia, Columbia, our Alma Mater true!

The vision thou has given of truth and human need,
Inspires us all to service to sow the precious seed.
May we in consecration to Jesus Christ alone,
Fulfil thy sacred purpose: "TO KNOW AND MAKE HIM KNOWN."

— Evangeline B. Kimber ('27)

O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing

O for a thousand tongues to sing
my great Redeemer's praise,
the glories of my God and King,
the triumphs of His grace.

Jesus! the name that charms our fears,
that bids our sorrows cease,
'tis music in the sinner's ears,
'tis life and health and peace.

He breaks the pow'r of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean:
His blood availed for me.

My gracious Master and my God,
assist me to proclaim,
to spread thro' all the earth abroad,
the honors of Thy name.

Text: Charles Wesley, Music: Carl Glazer

THE 2007-2008 CIU SCHOOL YEAR IN REVIEW

CIU educates people from a biblical worldview to impact the nations with the message of Christ.

DR. BILL JONES INAUGURATED AS CIU'S SIXTH PRESIDENT — Dr. William "Bill" Jones was inaugurated as the sixth president of Columbia International University on October 4th at an inauguration ceremony that drew about 1,000 students, faculty, staff and guests to CIU's Shortess Chapel. Jones was saluted by representatives of government, academia, missions, the marketplace and the CIU community.

Jones first came to CIU 20 years ago as a student. He became a member of the faculty and later served in the role of provost and senior vice president of Academic Affairs.

In his inaugural address, Jones said he will pray and labor so that God would bless CIU "in such a way that He would powerfully and effectively educate people from a biblical worldview so that we might impact the nations with the message of Christ."

GEORGE MURRAY IS NAMED FIRST CHANCELLOR OF CIU — The CIU Board of Trustees named former CIU president, Dr. George Murray to the new position of chancellor. In his new role, Murray focuses on donor relations, and is a voice to the evangelical community, promoting CIU's mission to train men and women to take the message of Christ to the whole world.

FINANCIAL GIFTS — God blessed CIU financially in several areas during the 2007-2008 school year. Final funding for the Moore Fitness Center assures students, faculty, staff and alumni that they will have a state of the art center for physical fitness for years to come. Funding for the Memorial Residence renovation included a $1 million donation. Other significant gifts were also applied to student financial aid and the ongoing operational needs of the university.

MEMORIAL RESIDENCE HALL RENOVATION UNDERWAY — Memorial Residence Hall is undergoing a $1.4 million renovation. Walls, ceilings and floors are undergoing changes. Outdated chairs, beds and desks will be replaced and updated amenities will be added, including microwave/refrigerator combos and wireless Internet service. Landscaping around the building will also be updated. It is expected that students will be living in Memorial in the fall 2008 semester.

THE 5X10 PLAN: TEN OBJECTIVES/FIVE INITIATIVES — Based on CIU's Strategic Plan, the administration has identified five key initiatives and 10 objectives which will be pursued in the coming years. They include enhancing campus life for students, improving the spiritual formation programs, expansion of academic offerings, and expanded delivery venues for classes.

LIBRARY COMPUTER SYSTEM IMPLEMENTATION — The Fleece Library implemented a new library computer system that integrates all aspects of library work from purchase of material to check-out. The system is a partnership with six other private, independent South Carolina colleges, providing a state of the art system for CIU students and faculty, comprised of 500,000 titles in a joint catalog. The upgrade allows CIU to participate in a statewide academic borrowing system, giving CIU students access to more than nine million items from colleges and universities around the state.

LOWRIE CENTER FOR CHRISTIAN SCHOOL EDUCATION — The Lowrie Center, launched in the fall, influences Christian school education by facilitating international networking, research, innovation, and the advancement of enduring ideas foundational to excellence in Christian schooling around the world. The Center honors Roy W. Lowrie Jr., founding president of the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI), who integrated the International Institute for Christian School Educators (IISCE) into CIU's master's program in Christian School Administration.

THE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL ROUNDTABLE — Mickey Bowdon, vice president for Christian School Education at CIU, moderated the meeting of Christian school administrators from around the world who gather annually to discuss trends and issues in Christian school education. The Roundtable relocated to South Carolina in February 2008.

ALUMNI MINISTRIES — David (BC '67) and Shirley (BC '71) Moreland and Tony (CBS '70) and Sharon (BC '60) Gould were recognized as Alumni of the Year at Homecoming, one of the best-attended Homecomings in recent years. The Alumni Association donated $175,000 to purchase cardio equipment for the Moore Fitness Center. TEAM CIU was launched to equip alumni in recruiting new students for the university.

ENDOWMENTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS – CIU is pleased to announce the following scholarships established during the 2007-2008 academic year:

- The Boyd Family Scholarship for students who demonstrate financial need and commitment to serve the Lord.
- The Cassels Family Scholarship for students pursuing a Master of Divinity degree.
- Dorothy R. Clark Scholarship for students who demonstrate financial need and commitment to serve the Lord.
- Harry and Betty F. Dent Scholarship for students who demonstrate financial need, are worthy, and are legal residents of the state of South Carolina.
- The Sara M. Petty, Thomas M. and Nell Petty Scholarship for students who demonstrate financial need and commitment to serve the Lord.
- The Wallace Family Scholarship for students who demonstrate financial need and commitment to serve the Lord.

QUALITY ENHANCEMENT PLAN – A new element in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) assessment/accreditation process requires each institution to develop a Quality Enhancement plan which is designed to improve some aspect of student learning. CIU has elected to develop a plan related to the spiritual formation component of our educational philosophy. That philosophy is expressed in the triad of content/head, spiritual formation/heart, and ministry skills/hands. The wide variety in educational experience (traditional, on-campus students, weekend students, extension site, online) requires us to rethink our methods in this area of educational philosophy.

ACCREDITATION – During March and April, we hosted accreditation teams from the Association of Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), the Association of Theological Schools (ATS), and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). In most areas we were found to be in compliance, with numerous commendations in key areas. The teams noted that improvement is needed in the areas of institutional finances, several specific areas related to academics, and a limited number of other issues. These issues will be addressed over the next months. We will not know the final results of these visits for almost a year.

a new direction

Who would have thought when we left in May so many changes would occur before we returned in August? Who would have thought three months would produce so many changes? But change it did.

Arriving on campus in August one got the feeling, that while things had changed over the summer, it felt more like a new direction was blowing in from the east. Change is a good thing. Think about salvation or repentance, the very act of walking in one direction, doing an about face and heading in the opposite direction. Invariably what happens is we start heading in a different direction.

Columbia International University is headed in a new direction with the 2007/2008 academic year. Bill Jones, our President, brings with him a new vision, new focus, and new energy. George Murray is now our Chancellor, a new direction for him as he will focus on his gifts of preaching, teaching and meeting new friends of CIU.

CIU is headed in other new directions as well. The new Moore Fitness Center was dedicated in October. Across the river, a new direction is taking place as 15 inmates are studying and earning credits toward an associate degree. The College is taking a new direction as the Business and Organizational Leadership program is launched. And who can argue with the new direction that the students are taking this year? Freshman are just beginning their academic career and seniors who will embark on careers in the ministry, marketplace and in missions.

A new feeling of collegiality is bringing a different emphasis in the way we worship, pray, and encourage one another. A new direction that is evident from the chapels Dr. Jones has preached (remember his references to LOTR and Valdamort?) on the new direction that we feel as students as we engage our studies, our faculty and each other. This new direction is the Lord's doing. He is the one whom we serve; He is the one that initially taught us about a "new direction." He is the one who is responsible for this new direction we celebrate with this year's Final. Enjoy the ride.

Dr. Bill Jones

President

Dear Senior Class,

You and Abraham have much in common. Abraham was settled in the country of his father, Terah, just as you have been settled in as students here at CIO. And just as God told Abraham in Gen 12:1, "Go from your country, your people and your father's household to the land I will show you," you have been told by God to "go from CIO." God is leading you to leave the comfort of CIO, and to head in a new direction.

Will this new direction be easy? I don't know! Will you always know where you're going? I can't say! But I can encourage you with this: God traveled with Abraham every step of the way. Not only was God with Abraham, but God worked through Abraham. Remember the promises in chapter 12, verses two and three?

"I will make you a great nation, I will bless you;

I will make your name great and you will be a blessing;

I will bless those who bless you and whoever curses you I will curse;

And all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

The unfolding of your future is known and mandated by God. Your new direction will bring new blessings as you bless the nations. As you leave this place to "make Him known," know a part of us goes with you. And if you ever begin to think or say, "I can't," remember He will. May you be encouraged by Abraham who "went as the Lord had told him."

Psalm 67: 1 & 2

-Bill Jones

Kevin McWilliams

Kevin was born on September 1, 1958, in Columbia, South Carolina. He is the third of four children of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Williams. He has two sisters, Linda and Susan, and a brother, David.

Kevin attended the University of South Carolina for four years, where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Education. He then attended the South Carolina College of Education in 1982.

Kevin began singing and composing worship songs when he first came to know the Lord. Although most of the students will remember him for his clever songs about mashed potatoes, Kevin has written over 100 songs of praise and worship and recorded 2 CDs. Kevin met Lanie in 1976 and they were married in Orlando, Florida in 1978. Kevin served as assistant pastor of Westwood Alliance Church from 1979-1981. Kevin was ordained to the Gospel ministry through the Christian and Missionary Alliance during these years.

In 1981, Kevin and Lanie returned to Columbia to finish his college degree, and to begin pursuing a Master's degree in Missions. In 1982 they had a daughter, Julia and in 1984 they had a son, Kenny. In 1988, they welcomed their third child, Danny.

While obtaining his degree from Columbia, Kevin led a missions trip to Dominica and Barbados. This trip started his desire for missions.

Kevin was a part of starting TREC (TRaining to EQUIP) Ministries, where he traveled several times to many Caribbean islands to deliver modular, re-teachable units of biblical studies to pastors and church leaders. In 1988, they relocated their family to the island of Barbados. In 1991, the government declined to renew the McWilliams' work permit and they relocated back to the states, where Kevin served as interim pastor at a small church plant in Orlando. He then became the Senior pastor, and he served until 1996.

In 1996, Dr. Johnny Miller called Kevin and encouraged him to apply for the position of director of CIU's Intercultural Studies Program, and the McWilliams' moved that July. While at CIU, Kevin served at his local church, Sandhills Community Church in the capacity of Worship Leader for 7 years. He then relinquished that ministry in order to complete his doctoral studies at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School.

Kevin became the proud grandfather to Judah Gentino on September 8, 2007. He has always been there for his family. He was home for dinner almost every evening, and he took time to read to and play with the kids when they were younger. He was at their sports events and later at the shows where they played in bands. He encouraged them in their interests by teaching and participating whenever possible.

Kevin has given his kids an amazing amount of love, support, and a wonderful example to follow. His son wrote a song, "Buck Hatch, 'A picture of the Lord'". We're going to write about him!

Welcome Week

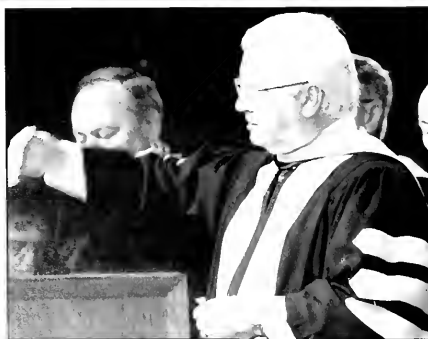

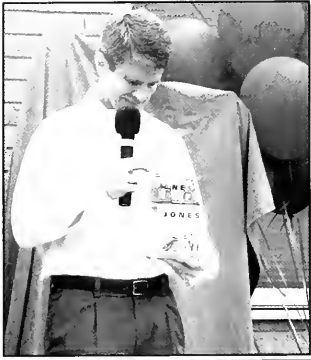

Inauguration of Dr. Bill Jones

On Thursday, October 04, 2007 Dr. Bill Jones was inaugurated as Columbia International University's sixth President. This day was the culmination of week-long festivities that included a barbecue with the students, an inauguration breakfast, and the inauguration service on Thursday. At the service, there were representatives from the community, the student body, the CIU board, marketplace, ministry and missions. The key note speaker for this event was Dr. Robertson McQuilken, Dr. Jones' mentor.

TIRED OLD GUYS

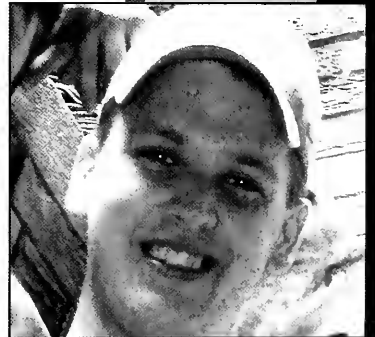

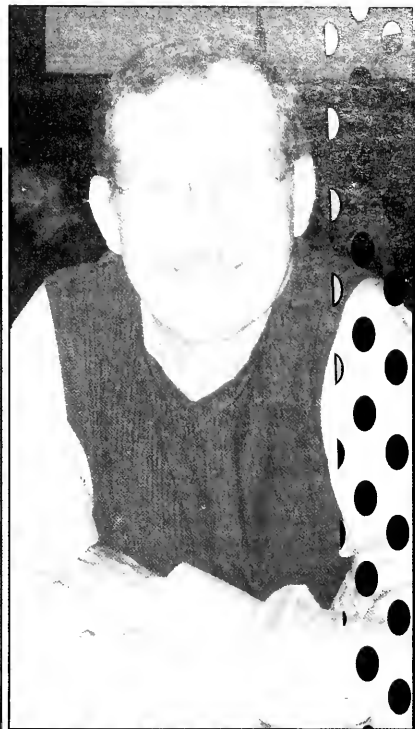

AKA.... UPPER CLASSMAN!!

Finial.

This year has been so much fun! Even though we had a small team this year, we still had a blast working on the yearbook and really hope you guys enjoy it. Kim, thank-you for all that you helped me with this year. You were there for everything, you were always willing to do whatever it took to get the job done, and you were incredibly helpful with making sure we had the pictures we needed, which was a huge help. You took on more responsibilities this year which helped me out tremendously. Thank-you for working with me these past few years, I have thoroughly enjoyed working with you!! To our photographers Stacey and Kenny, you obviously were a big part in getting this book accomplished. Thank-you for all your hard work. Brice, you have a huge task ahead of you next year when you take over, good luck to you! I know you will do a great job!! Dr. Dan, thanks for all your advice and support in making this book, and for all your trust in me! Thank-you for letting me have the privilege of being the editor for the past two years. I love you dad!! Well guys, these past years of working on the yearbook have been amazing, and I am really going to miss working on it next year! Hope you enjoy it!!

Colophon

The 69th edition of the Finial was published in Winston-Salem, NC by Jostens Printing & Publishing Company. Dr Pepper and Cheerwine were our lifesavers...no wait tootsie rolls were. The press run was 700 copies. Food kept us going. The yearbook is finally done!! The book was printed on 80 pound high gloss paper and the end sheets are 100 pound paper. We are finally graduating!! The copy font was Design. If only you could have been a fly on the wall this year. The Finial was produced using a Window's based computer and printed in HP Laser Jet 2200DTN. The Geek Squad is extremely expensive...yes we called. The pictures were digital and the pages were submitted on CD and sent to the plant. We never thought it would end tonight. The OS was Windows XP and the application used to design each page was Adobe InDesignCS integrated with Jostens Software. How late is it? Kim needs her sleep. The yearbook advisor is Dr. Dan DeLozier, Chairman of the Communication Program. Yup, it's currently 3 am. The editor is Ashley DeLozier. Thanks for all the laughs Kim! The Jostens representative was David Patrick and the Jostens plant representative is Kat Beliveau. Hope you enjoyed it this year!!!

A black and white photograph of a street sign. The sign is a dark rectangular plate with the word "MONTICELLO" in white, bold, sans-serif capital letters. It is mounted on a dark, vertical metal pole. To the left of the sign, another dark horizontal structure, possibly part of another sign or a roof edge, is visible. The background is filled with dense, leafy trees and bushes, with sunlight filtering through the foliage, creating a dappled light effect. The overall image has a high-contrast, grainy quality.
